

Peace unto you brothers and sisters,

The world admits that Ham the son of Noah was a dark skinned person. What the word of God proved was he was not the only one, but also his brothers Japheth and Shem. Knowing that Ham's skin color is NOT a consequence of a curse allows us without prejudice to receive a better understanding of the scriptures. Psalms 105:23 "Israel also came into Egypt; and Jacob sojourned in the land of Ham." Everyone knows that the land of Egypt is in what is known today as Africa. However what is concealed is that Africa was NOT the original name of the continent. Instead it was known as the land of Ham (pronounced in Hebrew as kham); in fact the Egyptians called themselves Kemet meaning black land. Obviously their name derived from their forefather Ham who also fathered the Ethiopians (Cush) and Libyans (Phut). These other two sons of Ham were also of monumental importance in the land of Ham (Africa). In the book of Genesis chapter 10, Mizraim the father of the Egyptians is not given the credit for the first kingdom ever. The people of Cush is attributed with the power to influence every nation that existed and were under their authority to worship Nimrod their ruler. When the nations were separated (Genesis chapter 11) the impact of Nimrod continued with the Egyptians. Concerning the sons Phut the Libyans, their achievements as an ally of Egypt and their impact in Europe causes whites to try to claim them as part of their race. The religion of Nimrod's Babylon still exists everywhere in today's society. Shalam (Peace)!

COLOR IN THE BIBLE

BLACKNESS OF ISRAEL

From our youth we are taught that all Africans are black, yet in movies such as the Ten Commandments we are shown white actors playing the role of the Egyptians. Although Hollywood would portray this picture to you, do not be deceived. For all ancient historians have documented the physical traits of the Egyptians; even the Egyptians left behind portraits of themselves for us to view.

The Egyptians

Note the description given by the scholars state: Egyptian wall painting. This wall painting from the fourth dynasty (ca. 2700 B.C.) depicts the Egyptians as a brown-skinned people with stiff, dark hair.

The indigenous people of Egypt are descendants of Mizraim son of Ham. Hence the reason they called themselves Kemet which means black country after their forefather Ham (pronounced in the Hebrew as Cham/Kham).

Today Hollywood and white supremacist historians try to blur that fact. They like to ignore ancient Egypt's history of a black civilization for the much later Macedonian (Greek) Egypt (ca. 323 B.C.) established by Alexander the Great. When he replaced the ruling class with Ptolemy I (Soter). Today Egypt is ruled by Arabs.

Egyptian wall painting. This wall painting from the fourth dynasty (ca. 2700 B.C.) depicts the Egyptians as a brown-skinned people with stiff, dark hair.

You may be asking yourself, why is the skin color of the Egyptians important? 2nd Corinthians 4:4 “In whom the god of this world hath blinded the minds of them which believe not, lest the light of the glorious gospel of Christ, who is the image of God, should shine unto them.” The light of the glorious gospel is that you are a special people, the REAL Jews, to whom pertains the promises of eternal life. As the scripture states this world is geared to blind the minds of our people from remembering the name of Israel.

Exodus 2:17 “And the shepherds came and drove them away: but Moses stood up and helped them, and watered their flock.” Verse 18: “And when they came to Reuel their father, he said, How is it that ye are come so soon to day?” Verse 19: “And they said, An Egyptian delivered us out of the hand of the shepherds, and also drew water enough for us, and watered the flock.”

Moses an Israelite from the tribe of Levi, was always confused from his birth for an Egyptian. Have you ever pondered upon this? How would Pharaoh’s daughter raise Moses as her own if he was white? When Reuel’s daughters met Moses they describe him to be as an Egyptian to their father. What does that mean? That the physical appearance of the Israelites could be compared to that of an Egyptian. Therefore Moses was a man of color (black) and not as Hollywood portrays him as a so called white man.

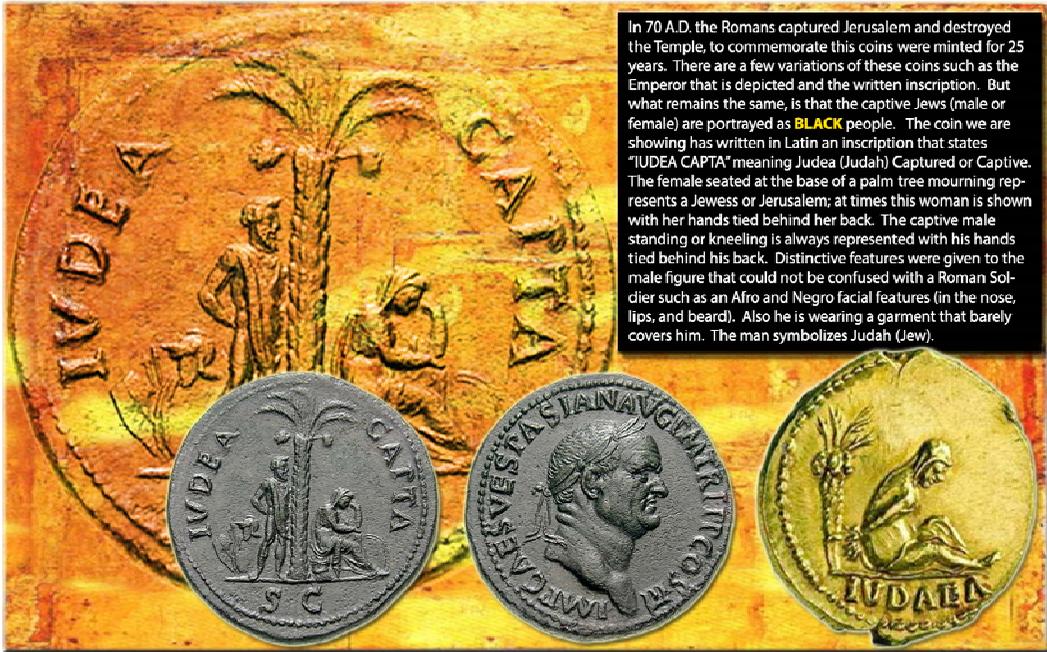

The Hebrews in Egypt as Slaves

From the walls of ancient Egypt an actual depiction of the Israelites serving hard bondage. Exodus 1:13 “And the Egyptians made the children of Israel to serve with rigour:” Verse 14: “And they made their lives bitter with hard bondage, in mortar, and in brick, and in all manner of service in the field: all their service, wherein they made them serve, was with rigour.”

Yet Moses was not the only Israelite confused to be an Egyptian in the Bible. Acts 21:37 “And as Paul was to be led into the castle, he said unto the chief captain, May I speak unto thee? Who said, Canst thou speak Greek?” Verse 38: “Art not thou that Egyptian, which before these days madest an uproar, and leddest out into the wilderness four thousand men that were murderers?” Verse 39: “But Paul said, I am a man which am a Jew of Tarsus, a city in Cilicia, a citizen of no mean city: and, I beseech thee, suffer me to speak unto the people.”

Rome rejoices at the fall of Israel

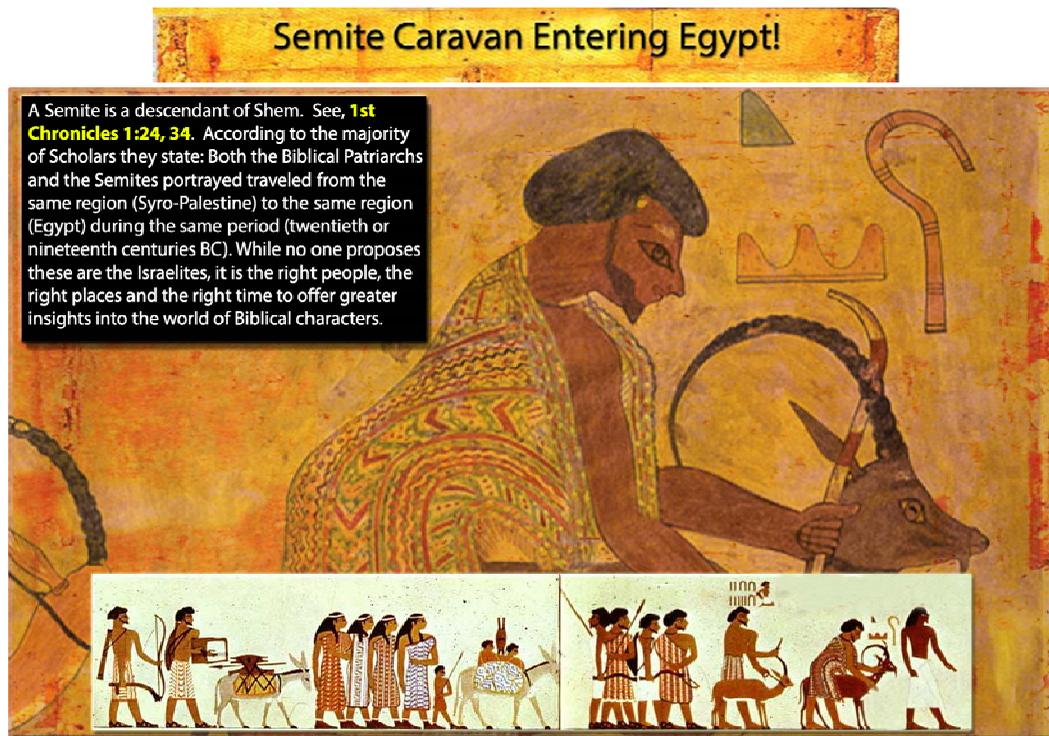

In 70 A.D. the Romans captured Jerusalem and destroyed the Temple, to commemorate this coins were minted for 25 years. There are a few variations of these coins such as the Emperor that is depicted and the written inscription. But what remains the same, is that the captive Jews (male or female) are portrayed as BLACK people. The coin we are showing has written in Latin an inscription that states “IUDEA CAPTA” meaning Judea (Judah) Captured or Captive. The female seated at the base of a palm tree mourning represents a Jewess or Jerusalem; at times this woman is shown with her hands tied behind her back. The captive male standing or kneeling is always represented with his hands tied behind his back. Distinctive features were given to the male figure that could not be confused with a Roman Soldier such as an Afro and Negro facial features (in the nose, lips, and beard). Also he is wearing a garment that barely covers him. The man symbolizes Judah (Jew).

Paul an Israelite from the tribe of Benjamin was also mistaken for an Egyptian. All the Israelites of every tribe were people of color, because the patriarchs were in physical appearance as the Egyptians. Joseph was sold into Egypt by his brothers and when they were come into the land to buy corn he spoke to them by an interpreter. Genesis 42:23 “And they knew not that Joseph understood them; for he spake unto them by an interpreter.” They did not recognize Joseph but thought him to be an Egyptian until he revealed himself unto them. Acts 7:13 “And at the second time Joseph was made known to his brethren; ...” If Joseph was a so called white man he would stand out from the rest of the Egyptians. Likewise when Jacob was buried the Canaanites mistakenly thought the Egyptians alone mourned for him.

Genesis 50:7 “And Joseph went up to bury his father: and with him went up all the servants of Pharaoh, the elders of his house, and all the elders of the land of Egypt,” Verse 8: “And all the house of Joseph, and his brethren, and his father's house: only their little ones, and their flocks, and their herds, they left in the land of Goshen.”
Verse 9: “And there went up with him both chariots and horsemen: and it was a very great company.” Verse 10: “And they came to the threshingfloor of Atad, which is beyond Jordan, and there they mourned with a great and very sore lamentation: and he made a mourning for his father seven days.” Verse 11: “And when the inhabitants of the land, the Canaanites, saw the mourning in the floor of Atad, they said, This is a grievous mourning to the Egyptians: wherefore the name of it was called Abelmizraim, which is beyond Jordan.”

In this video, archeologist show a signet (ring) found in Egypt with the Biblical (Hebrew) name Jacob. This is evidence of what is recorded in Genesis chapter 46 and Exodus chapter 1.

Notice the Canaanites did NOT say this is a grievous mourning to the Egyptians and the Hebrews. If the patriarchs were white they would have been able to distinguish them from the Egyptians. It is easy to see that the Hebrews could blend in with the Egyptians because of their skin color. With this conclusion we could understand why Jesus Christ's parents fled into Egypt from the face of Herod. Matthew 2:13 “And when they were departed, behold, the angel of the Lord appeareth to Joseph in a dream, saying, Arise, and take the young child and his mother, and flee into Egypt, and be thou there until I bring thee word: for Herod will seek the young child to destroy him.” These scriptures are examples of what the god of this world would want you to be blinded of. If you are not yet convinced by the word of God who are the Biblical Israelites (Jews), in the next issue we will read a few descriptions given by the Israelites themselves. Shalam!

Moonlight

Read about the moon.

The moon goes through phases as it travels around the Earth. The shapes of the phases are the parts of the moon lit by the sun.

A full moon is round like a circle.

A gibbous moon is larger than a half moon.

A half moon is half a circle.

A crescent moon looks like a sideways smile. It is smaller than a half moon.

A new moon is not visible because the side of the moon facing the Earth gets no sunlight.

Label the phases of the moon.

What kind of moon do you see tonight?

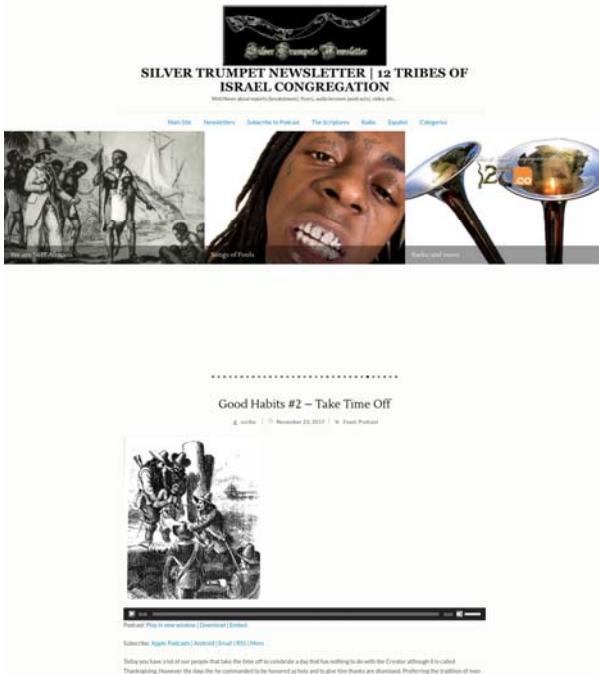

Phases of the moon

Science

Brain Quest Second Grade Workbook

In the previous newsletter we discussed the heresy against the new moon. This second grade book shows how easy the Phases of the Moon really are. They portray the phases exactly as it is mentioned in the scriptures. In the Apocrypha Ecclesiasticus 43:6-8 from the full moon which is the perfection that decreases to the new month (moon). After the new moon, light begins to increase.

12 Tribes of Israel | Silver Trumpets WebNews

The STN website has been revamped as you could see to your left. Instead of creating an “About” page explaining how it works, as we intended to do last time. Writing an about page is cool, and maybe we will still write one. But what is better is a new website. One thing we do not like is a website that has no direction and with so much going on at once. The STN site could easily be one of those because of the many aspects it contains (Podcast, Newsletters, etc..)

Although is not perfect yet because it is missing search on the homepage; the changes made it way easier to use.

However search is an option available when you click to view an individual post. A few quick things to note: in the menu (blue links) when clicking “Main Site” it will take you to a visual explanation for 12 Tribes Network (cooler than what we had planned before). Newsletter link provides a way to subscribe by email, plus a place where you will find them. Beneath the links are sliding pictures which are clickable and they are all Podcasts. Each posts has a heading with the title (clickable), date, and categories which explains the type of post. One of my favorite changes is how much of the post could be seen from the homepage without clicking “Continue Reading”. Also how when you reach the bottom of the homepage it will load automatically. Please take the time to discover the rest of the features and provide us with any feedback or suggestions. We will appreciate it. Until next time. Shalam!
